

Dear Miss know-it-all,

I am a eleven year old that does not know anything about siblings. But, I'm always babysitting my little brother! Some thing all ways I gets brokenen, hidden, or eaten. My parents alway tell me to take charge and stop this, but he won't listen to me even when I do! how do I control a wild 5-year-old?

-Big Sister Blues

Dear Big Sister Blues,

I'm so sorry! But, I'm no expert on babysitting.

I have a baby sister and brother, so I have no idea what to do! You don't need Miss know-it-all's help! You need an animal trainer! And when you find one that doesn't run away screaming, would you do me a favor and give me his/her number?

Best of luck,
Miss know-it-all.
